HOMECOMING HELD BY ARNEY FAMILY

Over One Hundred Participate in Arney Welcome Party—Neighbors and Friends Present Family With Purse.

To show their appreciation and gladness of his return to his home and neighborhood, over 100 friends and neighbors of Willard Arney, who was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court Tuesday morning of the charge of murder, were serenaded at his home, 214 W. First st., Tuesday evening. Preparations for the homecoming were started Monday as his friends felt that he would not be found guilty of the charge, and they felt safe that he would be acquitted. On reaching Mishawaka and leaving the car at the four corners, he was surrounded by a crowd of friends and strangers, who had followed the case in the papers and who were with him in his trouble and having had him pointed out as the man in the case, rushed to him offering congratulations and shaking hands. Arney, in company with his wife and child, were followed by the crowd to the home on First st., where they stood about in groups discussing the case. Just at 7:30 when Arney and his wife were making preparations for leaving their home for an evening's visit with friends, loud rappings on the door and loud shouts of "surprise" were heard. The serenaders rushed into the small home and crowded it to the doors, many of them being compelled to stand outside. The windows were then open and preparations were made for entertaining the guests, both outside and inside. The early evening was spent in merry-making and speech-making.

A purse of considerable amount was made up by his friends and neighbors and was presented him. F. M. Barrows, president of the Barrows Medical Co., made the presentation speech. He spoke for several minutes on the "Honesty and Good Character of a Man," telling that no matter if a multitude of enemies plotted against a man with the character and reputation of Arney, they could not drag him down to the depths in the eyes of his friends and neighbors and fellow employees who know him best. Mr. Barrows also said that anyone attending the homecoming at South Bend the past few days could not form a conviction that Arney was guilty of the charge. He also spoke on his stability under the strain of such a terrible charge and his four months' confinement in the county jail. Mr. Barrows also stated that notwithstanding all the evidence produced during the trial and efforts of the state to convict Arney of the charge, he came out of the fight for his freedom with a clean conscience. He said that at this moment that at any time during his long confinement in the jail and trial, after recovering from the emotional feelings, he stated, "Although I expected that many friends would be pleased to hear of my acquittal, I hardly expected such a demonstration as this, and little dreamed that the people of this community were so interested in me and my part of the case." Arney then extended his sincere thanks to his friends in the best manner he could under the circumstances. He received congratulations and shook hands with every one present at the gathering.

Some of the party left shortly after 9 o'clock, while relatives and close friends stayed until later in the evening. Refreshments, which were brought by the guests, were served, after which the men indulged in a good brand of cigars.

On Wednesday morning Arney was still the center of interest in the business district of the city, as he was at all times while on the street surrounded by friends, offering him congratulations.

Arney is making preparations to return to his work at the Mishawaka Woolen Co., and also the home which has been so bleak for the past several months. He will take up again the thread of life, re-established in the confidence of his friends and the community.

ANDREW DISCH DIES RESULT OF ACCIDENT

Steps in Front of Beebe Car and is Run Down—Taken to Hospital But Dies Without Regaining Consciousness.

Andrew Disch of 317 E. Fourth st. died at St. Joseph's hospital Wednesday evening shortly after having been struck and run over by a five passenger automobile driven by Ernest Beebe of this city at the corner of Second and Church sts. The accident occurred at 6:19 o'clock while Mr. Disch was returning home from the plant of the Mishawaka Woolen Co. where he was employed as a watchman.

No blame is attached to Mr. Beebe for the accident as he claimed by witnesses that Mr. Disch stepped directly in front of the car after having waited for another car ahead of Mr. Beebe's machine to pass. Beebe, who was driving east on Second st., was going at a slow rate of speed and it is claimed that he was hardly making seven or eight miles an hour.

Beebe claims that he did not see the man until after he had knocked him to the pavement as he was blinded by a strong headlight of an east bound north side car which was following the machine closely. The light he claimed was shining on the windshield of the car which was up at such an angle that he was unable to see ahead. The light appeared so suddenly that he did not have time to stop although he was driving slow.

The wheels on the right side of the car passed completely over the body of Mr. Disch crushing the intestines and causing severe internal injuries. He was little cut or bruised although unconscious when picked up by Harry Kirkwood of the Mishawaka police force. Mr. Beebe after bringing the car to a stop jumped out and helped place the injured man in his car and in company of Kirkwood, who was eye witness to the accident, drove to the hospital where doctors were at once secured. The injured man was taken to the operating room and the doctors put forth every effort to save his life, but to no avail. He died without regaining consciousness. While on the operating table his family were notified but arrived at the hospital too late to see him alive.

Mr. Beebe is very much broken up over the accident and put in an almost sleepless night worrying over the terrible affair. During the ride from the hospital to the Disch home he broke down several times, tears streaming down his cheeks as he drove. He bore up under the strain though and announced the news to the daughter of Mr. Disch.

Mr. Disch was well known in this city and was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic church. He has resided here for the past 16 years and came here from Elkhart, Ind., and has been an employee of the Mishawaka Woolen Co. his entire stay in this city. He was born Nov. 28, 1843, at Bollschwell, Germany. He was married to Miss Katherine Winters at Elkhart, Ind., 1881, who died several years ago.
He is survived by one daughter, Anna Disch, at home and one son, William, of Big Sandy, Mo. He also leaves one brother, George Disch of Los Angeles, Cal.

PAY JUDGMENT WITH INTEREST

Final Cost of Suit Against Electric Company Runs Up to $15,000.

Judgment for $9,871.25 with interest, which brings the total up to $15,184, was awarded the Trump Manufacturing Co. against Sanderson & Porter and the Indiana & Michigan Electric Co. in the circuit court Wednesday. The judgment settles a case which has been pending in the courts since the construction of the Hen Island dam and which was finally decided in the supreme court of Indiana.

The manufacturing company instigated the suit which at the post office house. The suit was filed against Sanderson & Porter, the hydraulic engineers and the electric company to compel payment for the wheels. The defendants entered a cross complaint charging a shortage of power derived from the wheels.

In deciding the case Judge Funk held the Trump company entitled to recover for the wheels, but also awarded the defendants judgment for more than $5,000 on their cross complaint. The defendants, however, appealed the case to the supreme court which last May upheld the award to the Trump company. The court decided the defendants were not entitled to recover on their cross complaint.

A petition for a re-hearing of the case was denied by the high court which in its decree, instructed the lower court to enter judgment according to the former's finding.

DR. O'S FOR MEDICAL EXAMINATION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

County Medical Association
Urges Progressive Step to Safeguard Health of Community.

The first step to bring South Bend up to date in the conservation of health and in treatment of infectious diseases was taken by the St. Joseph County Medical association Tuesday evening. If the plans of the physicians materialize this city should take rank with the most progressive in modern methods. A committee was appointed to investigate and make a report on the following subjects as applied to South Bend:

Medical inspection in city schools.
Foundation of city hospital, or arrangement with present institutions to care for indigent and emergency cases.
Establishment of city medical laboratory.
Establishment of a contagious disease hospital.

The committee which will investigate these subjects is composed of Dr. Edgar Myers, Dr. Charles Bosenbury and Dr. J. B. Berteling. A report will be made to the association in the near future.

The importance of health to the city is believed by the association to warrant a considerably larger expenditure than is allowed at present. The appropriation to the health department is out of all proportion to its importance when compared to the amounts given other boards for their work. In the opinion expressed, as an illustration it was pointed out that while the board of health only receives $5,000 yearly, other departments receive upwards of $150,000.

Dr. Myers Speaks.
The action of the association followed a paper dealing with medical inspection in schools by Dr. Edgar Myers. Dr. Cooper also presented a paper on the "Therapy of the Thyroid Gland Extract."

In the discussion which followed Dr. Myers' paper the results of the inspection of the school last week following the discovery of diphtheria cases were brought out to serve as an illustration of the need for regular inspection.

It was said that a great percentage of the pupils were revealed to be physically defective by that examination. Diseases of the eyes, nose and throat, as well as skin infections, are revealed which according to the doctors could be arrested in their development and eradicated by intelligent inspection and supervision at stated intervals.

Such medical inspection is practiced in most progressive cities and is possible under the Indiana law, the doctors pointed out. The statutes provide that the school board may employ physicians regularly for the purpose of examining pupils.

Supt. L. J. Montgomery is an advocate of medical inspection, and has endorsed it in several addresses. It was also pointed out that the city has a large number of children with hospital boards whereby the indigent cases as well as casualty cases are cared for in the hospitals at the expense of the city. This discussion was raised by the recent cases in which difficulties have arisen at hospitals over the acceptance of accident victims.

The hospitals contend they cannot take patients indiscriminately without knowing where the patient is to come from. In emergency cases where immediate medical and surgical attention is necessary, the doctors point out that there should be no question as to the city which would prevent fatal delays.

Need Contagious Hospital.
The establishment of a contagious disease hospital was brought into the discussion when a recent case of diphtheria which had to be treated in the "bull pen" at the police station, was referred to. It was pointed out that the city would be benefited because of the likelihood of infection and the facilities are not adequate, according to the physicians.

A city medical laboratory which would be a great agent in the prevention of epidemics is easily obtainable, the discussion developed. The laboratory which was established some time ago by several local physicians is now on a paying basis. Should the city take over the institution it would remain self supporting and the city would have the advantage of immediate and free tests of cultures revealing typhoid, diphtheria, tuberculosis and other diseases which may be arrested in early stages.

Generous Response Made to Appeal of Directors For Vegetables—Farm Show Exhib-

The little children of the Orphans' home will not want for fruits and vegetables this winter owing to the generous response to the request of the directors for contributions.

Many of the fruits and vegetables from the fall exposition were sent to the home and many individuals sent gifts. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Weber spent one day gathering up supplies from relatives in the country and brought a great wagonload, including 12 bushels of apples and as many of peaches. T. J. Jettson of Mishawaka donated the use of his team and a day's time to gathering other supplies.

There are 145 children in the home at present, and the health of all is good. During September two were placed in homes and nine returned to their guardians.

A pleasant outing was arranged for the children by the manager of the Edison talking pictures last week. Eighty children were brought in to see the pictures in cars furnished free by the street car company.

Plans were completed Wednesday for the annual rummage sale to open at 129 N. Michigan st., Saturday, and continue one week. The committee requests that all those having rummage please notify Miss Farland, home phone 1473, or Lexington tea room, Home 5563, Bell 262.

MRS. MACKAY IN ANSWER TO SUIT

Woman Sued for Million Dollars Says Mrs. Blake is of Jealous Disposition and Has Un governable Temper.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, suffrage leader and wife of the head of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Co., broke her silence Wednesday regarding the million dollar suit filed against her by Catherine K. Blake for alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, Dr. Joseph A. Blake, surgeon.

Through her personal counsel, Arthur C. Train, Mrs. Mackay denies all of Mrs. Blake's allegations in a formal answer filed in the supreme court and characterizes Mrs. Blake as one who has a "jealous disposition, an ungovernable temper," and "no affection or love for her husband," who, at one time, it is alleged, she threatened to kill.

Since 1895, Mrs. Mackay avers, Mrs. Blake has had no affection for the doctor.

"On the contrary," the answer continues, "she has sought to injure his good name by constantly spreading among his patients, friends and relatives, false and unjust rumors and accusations against him regarding his intimacy with other women and his neglect of his marital obligations, and has constantly declared to said persons that she, the plaintiff, was utterly disgusted with her husband."

"By reason of the facts alleged in the preceding paragraph, the plaintiff is, and at all the times mentioned in the complaint has been estranged from said husband, and has utterly destroyed whatever affection or love he may have had for her."

Couple Lived Apart.

Mrs. Mackay alleges further that Dr. Blake has not lived with the plaintiff as his wife since the year 1904, "long prior to the time when he first knew or had any acquaintance with the defendant," but on the contrary he has avoided the plaintiff as much as possible, and by mutual consent the said plaintiff and her husband have at all times since the year 1904 lived separately and apart, and since the autumn of the year 1910 have maintained separate and distinct establishments."

Mrs. Mackay says she did not meet Dr. Blake until 1909, long after the breach had come between him and his wife, and she prays therefore that the suit against her be dismissed.

The summons and complaint in Mrs. Blake's suit was made public only yesterday. It set forth that she was living with and being supported by Dr. Blake until four years ago. Mrs. Mackay, she charges, "willfully and wickedly and maliciously alienated his affections," and still alienates them. Mrs. Blake's suit for separation is pending in the courts.

FINED $25 FOR DANCE FIGHT

Three cases against John and Valentine Bryzzy were disposed of Wednesday morning in circuit court when the men entered pleas of guilty to assault and battery and were given fines of $25 each.

The men were held on indictments by the grand jury as the result of an investigation of a cutting scrape in the west end last August. Valentine Bryzzy was entertaining at a private dance on Harris st. Another dance was in progress on Dunham st. Shortly after midnight the latter party broke up and some of the members came to the Bryzzy dance.

Now, the Bryzzy dance was strictly an "invitation" affair and the host resented the intrusion of the Dunham st. revelers. In the melee which followed nearly a half a dozen men were cut up, none seriously, however. Nearly all of the men engaged in the fight were under the influence of liquor, according to the statement of Prosecutor Montgomery.

The Bryzzy men were indicted for assault with intent to kill and for simple assault. In accepting the plea of guilty to the latter charge Judge Funk delivered a severe warning to the men against the use of knives. "You must stay away from whiskey and never use knives or you will land in the penitentiary sooner or later." The judge complimented Valentine on his appearance and told him to brace up and be a good citizen.
